12TH MARCH 2018

Dear Parents

Last week children enjoyed a postponed World Book Day with some fabulous character outfits on Monday. They also came to school dressed in pyjamas on Friday to raise money for the Easter fayre. Many thanks for supporting the school in both these events. This week, as requested by parents, we have the Book People company in selling popular children's books at reasonable prices after school in reception on Wednesday 14th and Thursday 15th in Reception. Later this week, we will also be sending home some guidance on what makes up a healthy lunch box. We would very much appreciate your feedback on this and will be inviting you for a meeting to listen to your ideas later this term. The Easter fayre is this Friday 3:15-4:15. We very much look forward to see you there.

SCHOOL GATES

To ensure the safety of pupils during after school clubs, we will be closing the outer school gates from 3.10 p.m. This means that children not involved in clubs will need to be collected and taken off school premises promptly at 3.00 p.m.

We would ask that parents use the side gate when collecting from after school clubs.

Thank you for your cooperation.

We are looking forward to the following events coming up:-

Friday 16th March – Easter Fayre (3.15 – 4.15p.m). If you would like to donate cakes for the Cake Stall, please bring to Reception on the morning of the 16th.

Wednesday 28th March – Easter Egg Hunt (during school hours)

Please note that we are still looking for a Co Secretary to work with our PTA Secretary Dawn Howlett. If you feel you could assist her please email the PTA at icenipta@gmail.com

Parent Council

Do you want to represent the views of parents in your class? Please speak to Miss Corby in the playground in the morning about how you could make a difference through the formation of a parent council.
