5TH MARCH 2018

Dear Parents

Welcome back after the severe weather conditions resulted in the decision to close the school for 3 days. It has meant that World Book Day has carried over to today. Children have come to school dressed as a huge variety of book characters. Willy Wonker, Harry Potter, a walking dictionary and Where's Wally to name but a few. The children have celebrated 'Every Child a Reader' with a story from every teacher in the school this afternoon. Due to the weather conditions it does mean that children will have two non-uniform days this week. This Friday, children may come in PJs in exchange for either £1.00 or a donation for the tombola stall at the Easter Fayre. Please send tombola items in with the children to their classes on Friday for collection rather than bring to reception.

Many thanks.

Parent Governor Vacancy

Why join the Governing Body?

A Governor gets a privileged 'inside' view of how the school works, provides an independent view, can give advice and is valued by teachers and staff for carrying out an essential 'overview' or governance role.

Our governing body brings people together from all walks of life. A parent governor provides a vital extra ingredient – access to the views of mums and dads and the kids.

What would be involved?

Each term there is a full review meeting looking at performance and all aspects of the running of the school. There are one or two training sessions a term.

Please see the office or Miss Corby if you are interested in joining.

Homework

A reminder that your child's homework can be found on the home page of the Icen Academy website.

<http://www.iceniacademy.co.uk/>

Children have the flexibility to choose which projects they complete and in which order. A celebration of homework projects will take place on the week before half term.

The Attendance Award will return next week.
